

Daniel Newkirk

As a Subrogation Adjuster with The Motorists Insurance Group, Daniel handles insured and uninsured claim recoveries as well as Arbitration files, including a wide range of liability and coverage investigations. He started his career at Progressive in 2010 in the Cleveland area and moved back to Columbus in 2014. He was raised in Central Ohio and graduated from Fredericktown High School and Columbus State Community College (A.A. 2009).

Daniel serves on the Board for the non-profit organization Future Possibilities, Inc. where he enjoys impacting Columbus' youth and as a result, the local community. He is also owner and sound engineer at Newkirk Productions working with local singer-songwriters.

Daniel and his wife, Sarah, live in Worthington, Ohio with their two dogs. He enjoys producing music, attending Columbus Crew SC matches, hiking, and spending time with his family.