

LeeAnne Cornyn currently serves as the Director of Children's Initiatives for the Ohio Attorney General's Office. In this capacity, she works with teens from across the state to educate them on law and government. She is a proud graduate of Miami University, where she received her Bachelor of Arts in History and Environmental Science. After graduating from Miami, LeeAnne taught 8th grade physical science in Los Angeles, California, working in the underserved community of Crenshaw. LeeAnne attended law school at The Ohio State University Moritz College of Law. She is licensed to practice law in Ohio.